February 2004 Meeting

Date: Thursday, February 5, 2004

Time: 7:30 pm

Place: Roxbury Senior Center, 72 Eyland Ave., Succasunna, New Jersey

Executive Board Meeting at 6:30 pm

From the Presidents Desk- Nadine E. Weglinski

Hello everyone,

I hope the cold weather has not been a problem nor has caused cabin fever. If so, just think Spring! I would like to welcome all new members and congratulate our new Vice President Yvonne Stecky. I look forward to working with Yvonne. Included thanks to Jill Perry, Jean Davidson and Carolyn Goldsmith for their past work for AAR. We no longer will participate in the Eisenhower Show so I would like to thank Marie Volz and Jean Davidson for the years of participation.

The weather has kept me in so I have taken time to reflect the many accomplishments we as a group have achieved. Our relational team work has been a challenge for the board volunteers and myself, however, we have gained rewarding positive changes. I am filled with gratitude and appreciation which stems from working with the AAR Board Members as we continue to move forward to a higher realm.

Our Holiday Bus Trip was a tremendous success. Many new people came along and look forward to joining more future bus trips. Thank you Elaine for all your time and effort. Great job!

Nominations are on the agenda so please take time at our next meeting to read the job descriptions in the Presidents book located on the AAR information table. Also, I will send a sheet around for the present board members to review their present positions. Please decide whether you would like to continue or open the position for the upcoming term 2004-2005.

The AAR Spring Show will be an exciting event for our artists, friends, family and neighbors to attend. Our Spring Show Chair, Hospitality Committee and Corresponding Secretary are working very hard to make this a wonderful festive event. Please invite everyone and anyone to our Gala Reception with creative food dishes and beverages.

I would like to leave you with this quote:

"Thought is the blossom; language the bud; action the fruit behind it"

Steve Zazenski: Watercolor Demostration for February

Steve Zazenski, a native of Bayonne, N.J. has been a full time artist since 1978. He is known for his watercolor landscapes of New England, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He has won numerous awards for his paintings from the New Jersey Watercolor Society, Garden State Watercolor Society, Washington Square Outdoor Art Exhibit, Rockport Art Association, Salmagundi Club, and many local shows in the metro area. His work is included in the permanent collection of the Library of Congress. Private collections include former Secretary of State and Mrs. Edmund Muskie, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kiley, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Holmes, Lech Walesa, Congressman Barney Frank, and Stephen and Cokie Roberts. His work has been exhibited at the Bergen Museum, Montclair Museum, Nabisco World Headquarters, Sardis Restaurant, N.Y., and the Salmagundi Club. His series of Lithographs depicting nostalgic scenes of his native Bayonne are very popular and have been used on the TV shows, Growing Pains and the Mary Tyler Moore Show. He is a popular demonstrator and conducts painting workshops in Bucks County Pennsylvania where he now lives with his wife Kathy and his two daughters, Katie and Laurie.

Honorary Member News

Adolph F. Konrad

Adolph Konrad, renown artist and honorary member of the Art Association in Roxbury passed away on January 14, 2004. He was 88. He is considered by many to be one of New Jersey's finest contemporary representational artists. His art exhibitions focus on selections of still-life paintings, Victorian period images of landscapes, and other images that the public has come to know and admire. He has received many awards for his paintings.

In the early years of AAR, Adolph was invited to be our guest artist at several of our annual spring shows. He also served a judge at our shows. He will be missed by many. AAR will be donating a book to the Roxbury Public Library in his memory.
