From the President's Desk

Anastasia Mancuso will not be able to be at the first New Executive Board Meeting on June 3, 2010. There will be an executive board meeting at 6:30pm, followed by our general meeting and then critique of our work. I will sit with Ron, our first VP, and just help to guide him through that meeting if he needs any assistance. It should be a short agenda.

June Meeting

GUEST ART CRITIC: Artist Anne Kullaf
(www.kullaf.com)

On June 3rd Anne Kullaf will be critiquing AAR members' work. Everyone please bring in one painting for Anne to critique.

We have enjoyed Anne's two program demonstrations in the past at AAR. Anne Kullaf is a faculty member of the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey, the Hunterdon Museum of Art, and the Somerset Art Association. She studied graphic design and fine art at the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut and at The Art Students League in NYC. She is an elected-artist member of the following professional organizations: Catharine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club, Salmagundi Club; and the International Guild of Realism.

Anne exhibits in numerous galleries. Among these are Salmagundi Club and the Michael Ingbar Gallery in NYC; Trudy Labell Fine Art in Naples Florida; Gallery MacEgan in Morristown; Chasen Galleries in Richmond, VA; and JAG Fine Art in Philadelphia.

Upcoming, she has two workshops in June. One with a group of artists in France, titled "Painting in the French Alps", and the other a pastel workshop at the NJ Visual Arts Center.

April Demonstration

We were happy to have Caroline Goldsmith do a portrait demonstration in pastel for the April program. Not only was Caroline's demonstration instructive, inspirational, entrancing, and fun, but also money-making. $26.00 was contributed to AAR for her portrait raffle. Goldsmith is known for her oil and pastel portraits of both children and adults. She also paints house-portraits and landscapes of various spots in NJ. Caroline's art work is in numerous private collections all over the United States. She exhibits her work regularly in New Jersey.

NJSPAP UPDATE

(New Jersey Society of Plein Air Painters)

Stephanie has been updating the NJSPAP Website and the 2010 Painting Season has begun. New workshops and painting opportunities are coming in everyday, so please check the "Call To Artists" page on the website shown below for these listings. This year's schedule is published on the website.

Elizabeth Tolley Workshop - October 2010

A new workshop opportunity has been added to the NJSPAP website.

The well known artist Elizabeth Tolley has offered to hold an oil painting workshop this coming October in Los Osos, California. Elizabeth Tolley is a Signature Member of Oil Painters of America, and National Watercolor Society.

A few of our members will be attending this workshop and we wanted to pass this information along to anyone else who might be interested in attending. The prospectus is on the "Classes" page of the website.

If you have any questions, and are interested in joining this group which meets weekly at various sites, please contact Stephanie Amato.

AAR 43rd Annual Art Exhibit at the Atrium

Art Association in Roxbury 43rd Annual Art Exhibit at the Atrium

As you know, AAR is holding its 43rd Annual Art Exhibit in Morristown at the Atrium Art Gallery in the Morris County Administration and Records Building from May 11 to September 15, 2010, displayed on the 3rd and 4th floors.

If you were unable to make it to the reception, the exhibit may be viewed from 9 am to 5 pm Monday through Friday. The Atrium Art Gallery is located at 5 Court Street, Morristown, NJ.

Additional Show Opportunities for AAR

August AAR Exhibit at the Morris County Library

The Art Association In Roxbury members have been invited to exhibit work at the Morris County Library Atrium Gallery during the month of August. Work previously exhibited in any AAR show or at the County Library, crafts, computer generated or enhanced art, copies, giclees, and reproductions are not acceptable. Paintings should be suitably framed for hanging with wire and screw eyes- no sawtooth hangers or pressure clips. Maximum dimensions 36" in width or height including frame. The AAR reserves the right to decline any work deemed inappropriate. Work must remain in the exhibit until the pick up date.

Receiving will be on Thursday July 29, 2010 from 12 noon to 4 pm. Pick up will be Tuesday August 31, 2010 from 2 to 5 PM.

This new venue is for Art Association In Roxbury current paid members only, and is for exhibition and sales only. There will be no judging, awards, artist reception, or entry fee. Artists who make sales from the exhibit are asked to consider making a donation to the Morris County Library Foundation through our AAR treasurer. Members are limited to one entry at this time. (If AAR member participation is minimal artists will be notified of the possibility of submitting more than one entry.)

Members interested in exhibiting should mail the following information to:

Elmer Dey, 25 Long Valley Blvd., Long Valley, NJ, 07853

Or send the same information by email to: edey@att.net (include AAR August 2010 in the title line) Elmer will confirm online entries.

There will be a sign-up sheet for this show at the next meeting.

AAR MEMBERS SELECTED AS JUDGES

In April, Liz Sann of the Roxbury Library called Nancy Weiss and requested that she recommend two or three people to judge contestants' work in a national contest of teens on April 28, 2010 with patriotism as the theme. The name of the contest was "Young American Patriot Art". The students were from all over from grades 9-12. Our judges were Dorothy Fleming, Donna Kasuma, and Karen Tighe. If you are interested in more information, go to the site (www.ladiesauxvfw.org), and click on Youth Activities.

There were about 10 pictures submitted, but it was not an easy decision for the judges to make, as they were all excellent. It was an interesting experience and our AAR members did a fine job in judging this national contest. Our judges had 10 pieces to evaluate and score according to a list provided by Ms. Sann of the Roxbury Library. The scores were then totaled and the top three of the ten were selected.

Looking for Acrylic Workshop Instructors

This is an excerpt from a message from Ellen Brown [<mailto:ebrown@chartpak.com>] who wants to share the following job opportunity with acrylic painters and/or arts organizations in Morris County, NJ. There are openings in Rockaway, Ramsey, Watchung, Flanders, Parsippany, and East Hanover for Acrylic Workshop Instructors.

Workshops will be two hours long and will take place at a major retailer in locations across the United States and Canada. Artists must be capable of demonstrating a still life, landscape, seascape, and floral. We have developed a flexible curriculum in acrylics for an artist to use or adapt to fit to his or her style. We plan to conduct approximately one to four workshops per store per month and the artist will have flexibility in scheduling. Compensation is $100 per workshop, and teaching materials will be provided to the artist at no cost.

Please have anyone who is interested email Jennifer Kopec at jkopec@chartpak.com with examples of their work in acrylics, along with a resume and contact information. (Chartpak is a manufacturer of fine art supplies. Grumbacher, Koh-I-Noor, Higgins ink, and Clearprint are some of our brands.)

ROXBURY LIBRARY

June and July are still open.

If you would like to exhibit work at the library, call Donna Kusama at 973-770-4869.

*The following members are exhibiting, Aug: John Lake, Acrylics. Sept: Roberta Tarnacki, Mixed Media.
