April Meeting – Thursday, 4/01 at 7:15 PM

Executive Board Meeting at 6:30 PM
Place: Roxbury Senior Center,
72 Eyland Avenue, Succasunna, NJ

From the President's Desk

President Nancys Last Message.

Yes, it has been three years in serving AAR as president. As in our constitution it states we vote, nominate or volunteer for new people who have graciously accepted the positions which need to be filled and hopefully new volunteers at our May 6th meeting. There will be an executive board meeting at 6:30PM with the old board to begin their journey of service in Junes meeting. Everyone taking or keeping their position will meet with each other and make plans to meet one day to get the run down of the position they are taking I will be bringing the president's books and any other materials I have collected at our May meeting. Everyone will meet the new board and welcome them. I know they will be supported. They will start in June.

The board for the last 3 years have done a marvelous job.. Joyce Sciacca has done many years of service and will be retiring as a trustee this year. The executive board will also at our meeting be selecting a new trustee to fill that position. The words thank you are not enough to thank all the veterans and new members for doing such a wonderful job. You all are the reasons there is a strong alliance in AAR. Lets keep that spirit going and continue to build a stronger organization of artists in the mission of AAR and learn more to grow more in our arts.

We have our annual show coming up and so many of you will assist Elmer Dey in setting it up. It is impossible to communicate all I have learned this last year of serving AAR, how many of you were strangers and now friends, I was to shy to exhibit in the show and now have done that in our show and the VMC. For me it wasn't about the prize. It was about giving, receiving and learning to become a better person.

Shalom, Nancy Weiss.

May Meeting

Our presentation will be given by two members of the Art Association in Roxbury. Alice Harrison and Susan G. Hammond, artists and authors of “Artists’ Guidebook to a New Creative Life – Produce, Exhibit and Sell Artwork”, will be talking about the business side of being an artist. Some of the topics they will be covering include how to manage your time and stay focused on your projects, how to organize your studio space, how to promote yourself via brochures, resumes, press releases, and websites, how to get into galleries and juried shows, and how to network and make yourself known. Much of their presentation will be from their current book.

Alice Harrison is an artist who paints, in addition to making prints and collages. Susan G. Hammond is a fine art photographer. They are both members of many art associations. Their work is in numerous art collections and they have exhibited their artwork widely in galleries, colleges, museums and other venues. You can view their websites at www.alicenharrison.com and www.susanghammond.com.

The program is open to everyone. Admission is free and refreshments are served. For further information, please call (973) 398-6304.

KEITH SMITH, JUDGE ~ AAR MEMBERS' SHOW

Professor Keith Smith has earned a Master of Fine Arts Degree from the California College of the Arts and is the recipient of a Ford Foundation Fellowship Grant, a National Merit Award winner in Experimental Media from the American Film Institute and Sony Corporation, and twice a Gold Medalist in Painting and Drawing at the California State Exposition, and he is a frequent lecturer at hospitals and universities on the subject of bereavement and Art As A Healing Force.

Prior to his appointment as dean, he was Chairperson of the Visual Arts Department for five years. He is an exhibiting artist, a published poet and author, and a distinguished lecturer. His artwork has been exhibited at The Museum of Modern Art in New York City, the Smithsonian Institute in Washington DC, The Butler Institute of American Art in Youngstown, Ohio, the New Jersey State Museum in Trenton, and the Morris Museum in Morristown, New Jersey. He has artworks in the permanent collections of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art; the Crocker Art Museum; The California Museum in Sacramento, California; the Long Beach Museum of Art in Long Beach, CA; McClatchy Publishing, Inc. in Sacramento, CA; Deloitte and Touche Corporation C.E.O. P. Loconto Austin, Texas; Marin General Hospital Mill Valley, California; Kean University of New Jersey and Hudson County Community College Jersey City, New Jersey.

He will do the judging on May 14th and will hopefully attend the awards presentations on May 27th to answer any questions about judging criteria.

Additional Show Opportunities for AAR

August AAR Exhibit at the Morris County Library

The Art Association In Roxbury members have been invited to exhibit work at the Morris County Library Atrium Gallery during the month of August. Work previously exhibited in any AAR show or at the County Library, crafts, computer generated or enhanced art, copies, giclees, and reproductions are not acceptable. Paintings should be suitably framed for hanging with wire and screw eyes- no sawtooth hangers or pressure clips. Maximum dimensions 36" in width or height including frame. The AAR reserves the right to decline any work deemed inappropriate. Work must remain in the exhibit until the pick up date.

Receiving will be on Thursday July 29, 2010 from 12 noon to 4 pm. Pick up will be Tuesday
August 31, 2010 from 2 to 5 PM.

This new venue is for Art Association In Roxbury current paid members only, and is for exhibition and sales only. There will be no judging, awards, artist reception, or entry fee. Artists who make sales from the exhibit are asked to consider making a donation to the Morris County Library Foundation through our AAR treasurer. Members are limited to one entry at this time. (If AAR member participation is minimal artists will be notified of the possibility of submitting more than one entry.)

Members interested in exhibiting should mail the following information to:

Elmer Dey, 25 Long Valley Blvd., Long Valley, NJ, 07853

Or send the same information by email to: edey@att.net (include AAR August 2010 in the title line) Elmer will confirm online entries.

There will be a sign-up sheet for this show at the next meeting.
